How this works

[image]

Im just doing this for fun, Im sure only like 1 person is going to read this but if you are that 1 person, send it to 10 other people OR ELSE. I will give updates, say some opinions on the Show and answer some questions, there is no such thing as a stupid question.

Also check out my channel. I made the vid above.

Q/A 1

Question 1: Hey, what's your favourite colour?

1 Favorite and Color Is spelled wrong and

2: Its blue

3: You can ask me other things like Which LG ship is the best er something

[image]

@Tansven15 asks Do prefer Kion and fuli or Kion and Rani?Well one one hand, KionxFuli Is interesting, and half of my reading list were KionxFuli fan fics. But when I read them they have similar plot threads for example1: the different species so they are worried2: Tiffu or Zuri ruin everything3: Bunga finds outthe list goes on. But this ship as a whole i find cute (except the lemons stories, what goes on in your heads when you wrote the extreme detail)But for KionxRani, When I found out about this characters existence, I knew this was eventually going to be a ship at some point. And people were shipping them a year before season 3 came out. And when azaad was introduced I shifted my focus to this ship, and although there weren't any fan fics (like 2) I found the fan art adorable. There weren't much cliches in kionxRani fan fics because the writers beat us to it, but I do prefer this ship. But maybe if we get a season 4 we can have more development.Point is is that

KionxTiffu is an underappreciated ship and we all know it (I had to make this joke)What is the next question

[image]

Q:what are you grateful for this year

A: my friends would say something like "the promise of the sweet release of death" but im thankful for my fanbase.

You guys are really supportive and you get my sarcastic jokes, you guys get me. The only time where someone got really pissed over a joke i made wasn't even from my fanbase, but in another book. The closest you have gone to being jerks was when you either gave constructive criticism or suggested something for my story. But I was asking for it, so this shows you that you are very supportive, sometimes to the point where you DM me.

But this wouldn't be a Q/A with out a sassy answer

Sassy answer: COPPA, it totally wont kill my YouTube channel. its the best and totally necessary(click the external link)

(language up ahead)

also meh diiiiiiiiiiiiiiiiiiiiiiiiiiiiiiiiiiiiiiiiiiick

I noticed Something

I noticed how similar the Lion guard theme played in the background of the episodes sounds highly similar to the amazing spider man theme. Which is ironic because Max Charles is in both, he plays Kion in the lion guard and the young peter Parker in the beginning. listen

I saw star wars

No spoilers but I just saw the new star wars, and I loved it. I was so excited to see it that i made this on opening night and released it also on opening night

https://youtu.be/9AxU6tt4d9I

Is it good?

Fuli x Azaad

[image]

Pls dot kill me but I honestly think this ship is cute. Also since my computer Rasheed I'm writing from my phone so I'm sorry for any writing mistakes. Also if you dot understand the video above, I also barley understand it.

No story updates

No I'm not canceling anything, it's just that my computer crashed so I can't wait and I refuse to type on a 5 inch screen. Except thi post but not a full story. But as soon as I fix it I will be fine

Worst ships

Keep in mind this I my opinion. Pls don't get offended

I think Kion x Janja and Kion x bunga are DISCUSTING. WHY, and the fact that lemon stories of this makes me hate this ship even more. Also incest ships are disgusting. And if you do enjoy incest, WHAT THE FUCK IS WRONG WITH YOU, why do you enjoy that shit, WHY. I also hate Simba x Kovu mainly because of the age Gap. Simba saw Kovu as a small cub so if they * (Fuck you internet for making that) It would be weird. But in general I think it's disgusting and I'm sure the internet can do worse but I don't want to know. But this is me when I see one of these ships

The worst race

Alright pls don't get offended but in my opinion the worst race is

Car racing. I mean it's nothing but left turns for 4 hours. (Wat did you think I would say something else).

Story Review 1

I will be reviewing Nicorozner1 story bad blood. Basically it's a fuli focused story and it is well written. I wont spoil anything because it's actually good (if a story sucks, I will spoil) But the pacing is good and keeps me on the edge of my seat. And it's a nice break from the ship stories I usually read. I would recommend the story.

Story Review 2

So I read this piece of shit called Lion Guard What If. It's the worst I mean do people actually read this. It's so bad, the pacing is bad, and the author is a piece of shit. I mean why, why do this. Anyways thank for reading and tune in next week where I review lg results from rule 34.
(Ok this was a joke alright, I don't look up that stuff because I have dignity. And I just wanted to sound like the lonely kid who fails no but November the first day while hating on decent writers. If I don't like a story, I either click away or leave a sarcastic remark that's meaner than usual. Serious review later)

Story Review 3 (no jokes)

There is this trilogy written by VanillaErmine61. It's a kionxfuli story that also focuses on kopa and vitani. It's called the journey of Kion and Kopa. the writing is amazing and is a nice break from the recent kionxfuli stories where they have Kion break up with Rani that are mostly Garbage. The writer is amazing with everything and has each chapter at a good length. The character development is also great. The vilains are alright but I kinda understand their intentions. (Spoiler alert I'm sorry) One problem I have is the inclusion of humans and that they don't have a human lifespan. But that's just me and I give It an 8.5/10. And VanillaErmine61 if you are reading this and I know you are not, keep up the good work. And this story I so good, it has a sequel trilogy. So check it out

Story Review 4

This story (or stories) is written by kionfulilover. The books are called forgotten feelings. The story in general is decent, with good writing. And with the whole Garbage kion breaks up/rejects Rani phase the kionxfuli fanbase is going through, this is one.of the Better ones. A problem I have is one moment it's PG, and another moment it's Rated R (not for violence) and I want to cry. But the plot is decent aside of a few emotionally scaring chapters, i give it a 6/10. Now if you excuse me I'm gonna go and cry

Story Review 5

This story is written by TheShipMaster it's a FulixAzaad fanfic, and as far as I'm concerned the only FulixAzaad fanfic. The way the story is written is a bit fast but has its own char to it. The parts are.a bit short and the relationship development could have been better but it has its own writing style to it so I don't mind. Check out the story I give it a 7/10

I have to confess

Here is the truth, I don't expect you to forgive me but here is the truth

I'm homofobic. I have an intense fear of houses which is why I live under a bridge

Lion Guard Season 4

[image]

The video above is a season 4 intro I made, I know it sucks. But we need to make it clear we want a season 4 (and use the song above) . But I also want the show to air on Disney XD, it could give it a storytelling advantage, and instead of a TV-Y rating it can be TV-Y7-FV. Plus now of the younger viewers that watched the show in 2015 are now older.

The Search for the worst announcement

This is inspired by the YouTuber I hate everything, who has a series to search for the worst movie ever. So I'm doing a mini series here on this book, I will sacrifice my sanity and will to live to find the worst lion guard fanfic here. So tell me what you think is the worst lion guard story and I will read it and cry

The search for the worst

This one was written by Whitewhisper221 and DISCLAIMER, don go and bully anyone I mention on this series, to do that you must retrieve a cool evil mask and a red crosguard lightsaber. Back to the point, the story is kionxfuli love of the lion. Now believe it or not, this is one of the better ones. The main issue I have with this is the characters, everyone acts out of character which is annoying, they rewrote kion into a little insecure child for the first parts of the story. And Fuli was also unlikable in the beginning of the story which made it extremely hard to continue reading, how am I supposed to understand that kion likes her if she is a total jerk (Yes I am a kionxfuli person btw). And some parts just make me cringe very hard. But like I said, we are barely scratching the surface of bad stories, this is just one with bad characters.

The Search for the Worst 2

Have you ever read a story that was bad, maybe it was the writing or the subject in general, something so bad it makes you wish for the sweet release of death, well I'm going to find a lion guard story that makes me feel like that the most welcome to the search for the worst.

Alright this is painful for me to read (FYI Some of these stories are LGBT related, and I want to clarify I don't have a problem with people who are a part of the LGBT community, you can be straight and still be on my hate list, and I just hate these stories because they have no sense of dignity and you will see my point in a bit)

So this story is written by sonadowforever3 and the story is called simbaxbungaxkion and already I hate it. And the contents are even worse. There are sex scenes with these 3 and already I want to tie a noose. Simba would be classified as a pedofile, I mean he is fing his own son and his friend which is disgusting, I skim over the sex scenes (like I always do) but the detail is so bad, I still can't unsee what I just read, I want to die. Plus simba punishes kion by having him have sex with bunga for a month and you can see why this is awful, also there is a second sex scene that I would talk about, but already im this close to the noose and I want a will to live. I already commented fuck you internet but I'm still crying.

The Search for the Worst 3

Just to let you know the user I mentioned I the last episode is aware of my critique and I find her response funny, also I think the user thinks I'm a girl (just to clarify I am a boy, not a man, a scared little boy). And these people say if I don't like the stories then I shouldn't read it, I wish I could that but then I can't do this series so I'm sorry, but I'ma ignore the warnings and Read these crappy stories
Have you ever read a story that was bad, maybe it was the writing or the subject in general, something so bad it makes you wish for the sweet release of death, well I'm going to find a lion guard story that makes me feel like that the most welcome to the search for the worst.

So this story was written by the same user in the previous episode, so we have an idea on how much I want to throw up. (Just to point out there are rule for love, mainly human decency, people can't have a kid with someone they are related to because it creates health problems, and the baby will be messed up and probably live with pain and want to die, now back to the subject). So this story is called dating my brother sweet home Alabama plays (no offense to anyone in Alabama) and I think this is worse than the last one, mainly because of the level of detail, yes there are are sex scenes and I hate myself for reading this (but then I couldn't do this). I want to die, but it's just so bad, and people actually support this, Im sure not even an anti vaxxer would support this, I don't recommend reading this, I would rather read the "mature" parts I always skip over when I read a fan fic (pretty sure I already said this before). But now I'm going to go cry

Story Review 6

This story is written bymrheadshot2693 And the story is called the path of honor. It's another story about Kopa and is different from most stories about kopa. I wont spoil anything because you should read it yourself but the story will get you hooked and character development I great. I give it an 8.6/10. It's amazing and show the writer some support.

The search for the worst 4

This story was written byBen347. So this story is called forbidden love(a Kion and vitani story) and it's not AS bad as the other ones, but still sucks. Btw I had to block someone because they couldn't handle criticism, ikr so stupid so this story is a kionxvitani story but there are a few issues with the story. Mainly the plot. The plot is all over the place. For example, it was confusing to begin with, the writer didnt make it clear what the settings was for the au, it just expected us to understand. Ziras pride is still in the pridelands, are kion and vitani Cubs or adults. It hurts my brain. But really in this universe, Nala killed zira and now her pride lives in the pridelands, and for a while the story sort of made sense (barely) except for the spelling errors, which hurts. Then there is the random sex scenes, they show up out of nowhere, it's painful, and then the plot is all over the place again. And the fact that I can tell if they are Cubs or not is both confusing and disturbing at the same time. But if you excuse me I'm going to go cry myself to sleep.

Story Review 7

This story is written by deerwrites and the story is called Kionxvitani, the forbidden love nobody's knew about. This story is very good, and has excellent writing I would highly recommend this. The plot is interested and has emotion and detail. I want to talk about the plot itself but I think you should check it out yourself. And deerwrites if you are reading this and I know you are not, keep up the good work

Story Review 8

This story is written by ZuLL_Was_Here and the story is called rouge one. And this story is alright. The plot was good and the character development was also good. This story is an AU human version of the lion guard. And if you saw rise of Skywalker you will see some parallels between 2 of the characters and Kylo Ren and Rey. But there is one problem with the story (SPOILERS AHEAD FOR THE BOOK)
The final battle against scar felt rushed in an attempted to cram in season 3 content. They just randomly threw in the tree of life and Rani and the night pride without establishing their existence in this universe before, or at least properly. The ending was this book's main flaw and the book focused on kion and Fuli but they threw in Rani and immediately just said she is the one kion likes. But overall I give it a 6/10. The ending could have been better

Story Review 9

This story is written by @DWorks_Poppy and the story is called SOLO A TI TE NECESITO or I only need you in English. And this story is good, though I had to use the google translate extension on my laptop, but still even with the translation errors, i still understood the plot. But the basic premise is the lion king 2 but as humans and extra development on the KiaraxKovu relationship (It was that good). I actually felt emotions while reading it, the plot points were easily wrapped up by the end, and when it was over, i felt sad but the story was that good, if you understand Spanish, then you are good, but I had to use google translate. But go check it out and ignore the translation errors

2020 Release Schedule

Here is everything that I scheduled to be released this year. None of this is guaranteed, some might be released earlier or later

May:

Lion Guard Haman AU season 1

Tie in to another story

Sequel for Lion King Book

What If Season 2

June:

Lion Guard Human AU season 2

Sequel to Lion king Book

Sequel to a new generation

July:

Lion Guard Human AU season 3

Separate tie in story

Sequel to lion king story

New Story Formats

SO when it comes to my writing, i sometimes have a problem with "filler chapters" really i just post them, they are bad and short. So I developed a new formula that has actually been helpful for me in planning ahead for the story. So for my stories (Besides What if season 2, tragedy and loss, and My human AU) I decided to create 3 parts of the story, each with 3 chapters (so a trilogy of trilogy's). Each trilogy will have a different plot-line that builds off of the last. So here is how it will work

Chapters 1-3: Beginning plot

Chapters 2-6: Middle Plot

Chapters 7-9: Finale

I know it looks like the Skywalker Saga Film setup (Because it was inspired by it) but this does make story telling easier and gives decently long chapters and an interesting plot.

Why SimbaxKovu is Retarded

Just to clarify, i have nothing against the LGBT community, some of my bros are bisexual and i dont mind.

But people seem to like the Idea of Simba f* Kovu, which is extremely retarded (but then again im straight and i dont like seeing 2 men doing it because i have my preferences). I want to point out the age gap between the two. Simba is piratically twice the age Kovu is and it would be weird if a 40 and 20 year old were dating, but then again kovu is a teenager (as compared by size and year gap). And I know they use human years because one time i googled Kion's age and it said 12-14 in human years, not lion years. So everyone has a human lifespan. Keep in mind, its not acceptable for an adult to hook up with a teenager. And keep in mind, the maximum age to be a child is 18 years (and Kovu has an approximate age of 17), and the definition of a pedophile is" an adult who is sexually attracted to children."So if simba were to hook up with Kovu, he would be considered a pedophile and would be classified as statutory rape. Also keep in mind that dating a former teacher (mainly elementary teachers) is wrong because they saw you when you were a small kid, this is the same case, Simba saw Kovu when he was a small cub. So the reason why i think SimbaxKovu is retarded is because I based my opinion on facts, and basic decency, so if you like SimbaxKovu, im sorry but you are retarded if you still like it after I presented facts to my claim. And these reasons can also apply to NalaxKovu, because she was also present when simba confronted Zira at the beginning of the movie, and chances are that she saw Kovu when he was a small cub also.

Sassy/sarcastic reason: because its kinda Gay

Send this to anyone who wants to argue with you about this. They will ignore the logic if they are stupid.

The Shty KionxFuli Fanbase

Disclaimer, i dont mean the KionxFuli fanbase in general, but rather the ones who ruin everything after season 3 aired. This is basically a chapter that is going to let me vent out my frustration. Just to be clear, i do like KionxFuli.

Do you remember a time before season 3, there were good or at least decent KionxFuli stories. Although they sometimes followed the same formula, they also tried to do something new. But then The season 3 finale aired, and it awakened a part of the fanbase, the part of the fanbase that cried in protest hating that Kion ended up with Rani instead of Fuli. Now I know that the relationship between Kion and Rani could have gone better. They should have created a character arc for Kion where he has a crush on Rani, and Rani feels the same but she is the "be mean to your crush" girl, that would have gone better and could have been entertaining to see Kion try to impress Rani. I focused on the eye contact between kion and Rani during the second half of season 3, and only like 3 times they did show a hint of attraction, but then again this is intended for children and if this was for older kids, they would have probably done this (which is why I want seasons 4 and on to be on Disney XD). But there is still a chance for their relationship to be developed in season 4 if they ever make one. But people were protesting saying that Fuli is better. But unlike seasons 1 and 2, their Chemistry wasn't very good, they actually felt like they were friends and nothing more during season 3, there was no Romantic chemistry between them, but instead showed friendship chemistry. But people were caught up in their fantasy land so I dont know what was going through their heads.

But this has affected fan fics on here, now there are stories where Kion does leave Rani for Fuli, and they all feel the same. Kion doesn't feel the same about rani, he wants to be with Fuli, Rani is the Villain. Seriously thats it, its copy paste for 99% of them. Most of them dont try to do something new, or have a long therm story. These stories could go better if Kion Leaves Rani for Fuli but Kion and Fuli were villains instead of Rani, it would also be a good character arc for Rani if Kion and Fuli were evil, she invited Kion into her home, then Kion tried to betray her, it would have a lot of emotional moments between them and could be a great story. But instead people will go,"I hate Rani blah blah blah" which is annoying. And the casual viewers of the show, who have accepted Kion and Rani could be turned off if they want to start reading Lion Guard Fanfics if they see the immature attitude from the KionxFuli fanbase (the immature ones), and give them the impression that the fanbase is closed minded who cant come up with an original plot.

What i am trying to say is that the KionxFuli fans, if they don't like KionxRani, just go back to writing Stories that take place during season 1 or 2, and ignore the characters and events from season 3, it would be better and can give original and Great stories, like how we used to do it,

Story Review 10

This story is by Somervil_902878 and is actually 2 books (the third one is on chapter one as of now). And the story is called What we once were Books 1/2. And this is the spoiler free part. (this is an AU where scar didn't try to kill Mufassa) These are amazing, a lot of depth and character development, especially with Kion, it has a lot of emotion,and the ending of book 2 made me cry (either that or it was my parents). So really check it out.

Spoilers.

So the first one focuses on Kion and his never ending life of pain (like me). Kion would constantly get tormented or bullied. Everyone around him would say that he is sad because it is his fault and that everyone else cares for him, even though to an extent, his actions and feelings are justified. The first book ends with Kion Breaking up with Rani thinking she is tricking him (and some "stuff" is implied and if she was tricking him, she must have been very determined) but then again Rani has been a jerk to him his whole life so his feelings are understandable, and Kion joins scar. Rani, tiffu, Zuri and a few others move away to another land to start a new life.

The second book is more dark. It focuses on Rani and her group in their new home, and she gave birth to a cub (again, if she was tricking Kion, that is serious dedication). But the pride is Quickly taken over by a small group of males and half of them dont know that they can just pay to get laid (thats an exaggeration but you get the point). And a few moments do have sensitive subjects that I wont refference. The Book ends with the pride escaping back to the pridelands, while Rani stays back and kills their leader, but then Rani is supposedly killed herself.

On to critisism. @Somervil_902878if you are reading this and I know you are not, dont kill off Rani. Because there is only so much depression I can handle. I know you might want to make the story emotional but if Rani did live, she could see what Kion has become and even have a fight with him, but its like one of those fights that is more emotional than physical. But then again thats my suggestion, you can do whatever you want, just remember MARVEL killed off half of their characters and brought them back, and got away with it. But like i said, it's your story.

The Lion Guard on Disney XD

[image]

Not a joke, the video above is real, but the original clip is in dutch so I had to dub the audio in English. But as far as i'm concerned, in the Netherlands, The Lion Guard did air on Disney XD, at least the Pilot and Season 1. This was the only time the lion guard aired on all 3 Disney Networks at the same time (Disney Junior/Channel/XD). But then it got moved to only Disney Junior/Channel which kinda sucks because thats why the footage is extremely rare. It took me forever to find the footage. But if they make a season 4, they should remove it from Disney Junior and have it Primarily air on Disney XD (and subsequently on Disney Channel) because Disney XD has an older target demographic, that means the writers can have more mature episodes and creative freedom.

But for some reason this video isn't being shown as much by the YouTube algorithm so can you send this to everyone so more people know about this.

Fix you story.....Cover

So me and my friend like to watch this guy called Jacksfilms (mostly my friend because he loves his content, I just watch it whenever i'm bored) and he does stuff like "fix you bio's""fix your art""fix you pix" stuff like that. The I realized i'm somewhat decent at Photoshop. And IDK how long I will have Adobe Photoshop so I decided to fix your book covers, and make it look like a Movie Poster. Here is an example

[image]

And it wasn't like most collage covers, I put effort into it, adjusted the lighting, blended everything together, that kind of stuff. So I want to do it for you guys.

Requirements:

I have read and enjoyed your story

I have permission from the writer (if you want to suggest someone else's story)

You put the money in the bag, wait (this was a joke)

You get the Idea. Share this with as much people as possible, please or else (laughs in looser) I need something to do during quarantine

NEW cover VS old cover

I want your input, which cover is better.

Old:

NEW:

The New one took me 6 hours to make in Photoshop, but I did it, it sorta looks like a movie poster.

NEW Cover VS Old Cover 2

So here is the Old Cover to What if-Kion Grew up With Rani

[image]

And Here is the New one

Which one is Better

NEW Cover VS Old Cover 2

This is the old Cover to my KionxZuri Book

Which one is Better?

How I should sound to you

[image]

I an known to make a lot of jokes and comments a lot (even though some people are stupidly offended). But if you want an Idea of what I should sound like making these jokes, just read everything I say (except my stories) in a pyrocynical voice. if you dont know who he is, watch the video above, and now you know what the voice reading these comments should sound like for MAXIMUM comedy.

The Search For The Worst 5

(remember, Pyrocynical voice)

Welcome back to the series where we bully people who have an IQ lower than the average Cardi B fan (So -83493274389 12). Its a miracle on how these people survive, and especially this writer. Now recently I had an encounter with this mass of cells and it might think im doing this to be petty, and you are absolutely right but I have a higher IQ, and I cant even do math which says a lot if im the smartest here.

But this book is made by @LionGuardLemon and the name makes me want to kill myself, I don't care if the death is painful, please god, END MY PAIN. People like this make me believe that we deserve the corona virus (if you are one of my readers, I dont mean to offend anyone). We deserve 2020 at this point. Now the book im hating on is basically a lemons collection, and its retarded, not even Hitler would approve (I kinda mean It). Now I am aware that sex is a part of life, heck I took advantage of free premium, but this is unnecessary. I have actually seen a Lion King story where mating was part of the plot, and the difference is that the LK story is good, while this is a dumpster fire. And Lionguardlemon said something along the lines of "thanks for the read" and if this was YouTube, I would be annoyed, but this is Wattpad, you dont make money, and the story ranking system here is weird, Like a poorly written lion king book with 1 part, can outrank a very good LK story so I dont give a shit if I give you a read.

Now this book is retarded in so many ways, mainly the incest. Incest is retarded, its not an opinion, it is a fact because there is Scientific research that says family should not mate with each other (and dont give me the "animals perform incest IRL" because in the story, they have the same intelligence as a human). Seriously it is retarded. And I had the stupid decision to read it and the context to the stories aren't that good, they really are not, its just random and cancerous. You know what, because when it comes to the multiverse and Lion Guard stories, Im in charge of that field, so this means that I decide which universe lives, and which ones Die and get blown to bits while its inhabitants have a painful death. If that doesn't work i can have Deadpool show up and Kill them all, either way I win. Dont read the story, Im still having the gun and noose because I want to die, Oh how I wish it was a joke, but at least this person has more decency that sonadowforever so I see this as a win.

Road to Tragedy and Loss (Spider-Verse)

[image]

So this is basically a prelude for Peter Parker in the tragedy and loss book, the first like 9 parts focused on separate alternate versions of lion king characters, and now I will give details as to what Peter Parker did between What is episodes 1-4 and this book. Right after Peter goes back home he gets summoned to battle a group of villains that teamed up in an attempt to take control of the multiverse. So they rebuilt the collider (like the one from the 2018 spider verse film) but make it more powerful to take out a bunch of universes. Peter along with other spider people who were available (because the others were dealing with the inheritors in spider-geddon) located the collider and tried to take it down. but during the battle the collider several times released several energy bursts that destroyed a bunch of universes. But an alternate version of Peter makes a remark about them saying "no one with a brain will miss those universes anyways" but eventually the collider will destroy important universes that people cared about. The alternate spider people manage to destroy the collider and go home. But Peter also manages to create a device on his web shooters that can allow him to open portals to other universes, so Peter starts hanging out with the Lion Guard a few times. But at the same time due to the Avengers disappearing in his universe (following the events of Avengers:Endgame, or this version of Endgame) Peter has to deal with a lot of criminals until the other Avengers come back.

Old Cover VS New Cover 4

Welcome back to the show where I redo my covers and show im the only one who puts EXTREME effort into these (thats only a joke, im sure you guys work hard on yours), lets get started.

Old cover for A new Generation

[image]

And the New Cover

[image]

I would have shown more members of the new night pride featured in the story, but I couldn't find the right images online.

New Cover VS Old Cover Progress

So I finished Updating all the covers and I want to do a comparison on all of them

These are the old cover, they were simple and in low resolution, they kinda sucked

[image]

These are the New Covers that I personally like better. you can also notice a difference in style. That's because over time, I changed a few things about how I make these Covers. The First was the Tragedy and Loss, and the Last one I made was the "A New Generation" Cover. (The Image took so long to load because the Image had a HIGH resolution so I had to scale it down). But I made them like this because I do see my stories like movies, not books.

[image]

But which one is your favorite, let me know in the comments below I wont read them.

Lion King Poster Re-Do

Im not re-doing the poster in a theatrical sense, but more of in the style of the MARVEL studios Blu-Ray anniversary re-release

Example image

[image]

Lion King Version:

[image]

Phase 1 And 2 Of Lion Guard Stories

Like MARVEL Studios, I divided my stories into Different Phases. Keep In Mind that Some Phases will overlap, but Its just a way to organize them (basically Phase 1 is Every Lion Guard book that as of now, has the "Completed" Label on it). Also for most of them, I created new covers in the style of the MARVEL Studios Blu Ray Anniversary Re-Release. But I wont Use them for the Actual Books.

Phase 1 of My Lion Guard Stories is basically the Test phase, to see what works and learn from them. It started when I decided to write my first Lion Guard Book-What If Season 1.

[image]

Then I decided to attempt to do a full on story with What If Kion Grew Up With Rani, which was well Received.

[image]

After finishing that story, because it was so received, I gave the Book a Sequel.

[image]

Then the Final Book in Phase 1 Was The Lion King AU:Darkness and Loss.

[image]

Then Phase 2 Started off With Lion Guard:Tragedy and Loss, focusing partially on the Version of Spider-Man from What If Season 1.

[image]

Then KionxZuri was released, because there aren't a lot of KionxZuri stories, so this was made in an attempt to fill the void.

[image]

And Now The Final one (as of Now) That is in Phase 2 is What if Season 2

[image]

The Next Book Confirmed for Season 2 is Lion Guard Human AU Season 1. But I cant make this one alone. I already wrote the pilot, but I need a few writers for the episodes. If you are interested, please contact me Via DM or through my Twitter @lionguardspidey.

The Search For The Worst 6

Yes we are still doing this crap, i shouldn't have to but there are a lot of dumbasses out there so lets just do this.

This story is written by nderleth and its called KionxNala

Now normally I would want to game-end myself after reading it, but this person had the retarded Idea of having smut on the cover, IT WAS ON THE FING COVER, so I wanted to game-end myself even before I read the book. But this doesn't get better, I read the story so you don't have to, and also so no one has to see that cover because I want to die.

The plot for this is that Kion has a crush on his mom after he saw her bathing and her engaging in "stuff" with his sister (there is no loving god) they both make out and want to be a couple (can I die if I cry too much, because I want to cry). They ask Simba for permission to be together and he says yes.

The next chapter starts with both cheap excuses of intelligence go to a cave and engage in "stuff" with kion saying he's been waiting to do this for years which is retarded. Then after they were done, they noticed the guard was watching them. And this chapter ends with Fuli saying she wants to do it with Nala, and she agrees after she has her cubs and SOMEONE KILL ME, IF ANYONE ON THE DARK WEB IS PREPARING TO KILL ME, DO IT NOW I'M BEGGING YOU.

The story ends with Nala giving birth to cubs and Kion roaring away the outlanders before returning to pride rock.

I hate myself for reading this, but I did it so you don't have to. But whats worse is that some people like them, these people are so stupid, the space inside their head could be an endless void, thats how dumb they are. I don't care if incest is a thing with lions IRL, THIS IS A F*ING ALTERNATE UNIVERSE, and in this universe, they are self aware, so they know its incest.

Seriously someone game end me

KionxFuli Story Cover

So I am going to do a KionxFuli story. IDK when I will be able to release it, but here is the cover with the official title.

[image]

Kion is still the King, but no Rani art

[image]

As you can see by the image above, I was not wrong with the title. Usually there is art where they would swap out Rani for Fuli (which i think is stupid, depends if the intent was to hate on KionxRani) so i thought I should post this. I dis not make the image. Whoever made this image deserves the credit (because I have no idea who made this 100%) But for some reason this image doesn't make me want to track down the artist and enforce pain.

Ironically Kion and Tiffu had more romantic chemistry in season 3 than Kion and Fuli, and they did not talk, but I would be willing to have Kion RANDOMLY end up with tiffu in the finale.

Details about my KionxFuli book

[image]

So I released the poster earlier and I want to give more details about the story.

The Book will be released Sunday right after I post the finale for my KionxZuri story. The reason why is because I always had a stand alone ship story at some point. First it was what if Kion grew up with Rani, then it's sequel, then KionxZuri, so now I'm doing the KionxFuli book.

The book will take place during season 1 and if this is a success and I give this sequels, I will not have anything referencing season 3 in ANY WAY, so no scar on Kion, tree of life, and no Rani. I want to ignore season 3 because in season 3, Kion and Fuli had TERRIBLE ROMANTIC chemistry (prove me wrong, you can't). And season 1 and 2 was when KionxFuli was at it's best.

And this book will involve Vitani to a certain extent. But probably not for the reason you think.

I will have a few cliche's in this story, but at least this is original unlike the shitty Kion leaves Rani for Fuli stories that are literally ALL THE SAME.

But hopefully you will enjoy the story, and also check out my commentary on the Lion Guard Fan-Base book, where I point out some stupid stuff about the LG fanbase.

My Plan for my Wattpad Stories

When I decided to first start writing (pre-lion guard books) I wanted to do something, I had a plan to basically have everything accumulate into a huge event. But when I started my Lion Guard stories, I needed to change my style. So I started with What If Season 1. Then I posted more Lion Guard stories. And now I have an endgame for some of these stories, mainly Spider-Man

I know i am a huge spider-man fan (you can blame my friends for that) but he is the key, the key to something more. I have a big plan for the version of Peter Parker that debuted in What if Season 1.

I have a plan in my head, to tell a new story of Peter Parker, a story of him finding a new family after losing most of his, with May being the only one alive (his parents and Uncle Ben are always dead). And along the way for this journey, I thought of stories for him to experience, he is in a new world and Tony is not around to guide him as he did before. There is reasoning for the timing of releasing stories, there is reason for everything I did with Peter, to set him up for more.

Everything if going along to my design for the story. It will take a while, but you will see the bigger picture, you just dont know it yet.

Lion Guard Season 4 Details and Cover

FYI, im talking about my season 4 that i'm going to write. But here are a few details regarding this book, The ending chapters of this are going to be a bit emotional, I cried while writing them, also I am not going to release it until I have written all of the chapters so you are going to have to wait a while. But I made this basically to have something else to keep you guys busy, after all my Human AU still need some episodes to be written, so this is just to hold you guys off for a bit, and I wanted to get some ideas out of my head.

And here is the cover for the book, I am very proud of this one.

[image]

But I cant wait to have you guys read the story.

Ranking Power Rangers Songs From Worst to Best

Operation Overdrive demo theme: Worse than the original

https://youtu.be/WuSAjxSlnzk

Operation Overdrive theme: Me no like rap song

https://youtu.be/KnJgtuHlHpw

Dino Thunder Demo Theme: The singer sounds like she doesn't want to be there

https://youtu.be/jdKjlEri4RI

Mystic force Demo theme (Rap): Ran Wasserman is better at rock than rap when it comes to Power Rangers

https://youtu.be/dU1hgDkN6zc

Turbo theme: Its a downgrade from the previous other seasons

https://youtu.be/_s98KJd95pc

Lost Galaxy theme: This tries to be exciting, but personally I'm not digging it.

https://youtu.be/GtJa9rup4O8

RPM Demo theme 4: It starts off good, but then it turns into an eh song. (Starts at 1:15, I know it says demo 3)

https://youtu.be/621E2stafXk

Lightspeed Rescue theme: Its an alright song, the middle part is the one I like the most, the rest is just eh

https://youtu.be/rdpnsWMh80U

Wild Force theme: Its not bad.

https://youtu.be/8Y3Ib0YNFaQ

RPM Demo theme 3: Its eh, I mean it's just so calm

https://youtu.be/BFWF7evgJ40

Mystic force Demo Theme (Rock Version): Ron Wasserman did a decent job, but I like the one Disney picked.

https://youtu.be/1P1B2N6YfE4

Ninja Storm Theme: Its pretty chill and I like it

https://youtu.be/3D_id7KFopc

RPM Demo Theme 2: The beginning gave of the post apocalyptic feeling, then cuts to a song that HIGHLY resembles mid 2000's rock. Its decent

https://youtu.be/W4VAWyhTSOo

Beast Morphers theme: Its alright, but its kind of lazy since its 30 seconds and still uses the Go Go theme which gets old after a while (says the one who listens to a remix of the Weekend Whip every year). But Hasbro can do better

https://youtu.be/GwqDBqhbF5Q

Wild Force Demo theme: It had more energy than the original

https://youtu.be/tlKj5m3KhB8

Hyperforce Theme: It has a lot of energy and I like it.

https://youtu.be/v9eRoHypKtg

Jungle Fury: Like Ninja Storm, it has somewhat of a chill vibe, but still has the rock element to it

https://youtu.be/IeOpdqesepI

Jungle Fury demo theme: IDK why I like this

https://youtu.be/4KUZMBUxcO8

MMPR/Alien Rangers Theme: Its so 90's and I love it

https://youtu.be/nHalaFUqnTI

Megaforce Theme: It would have been liked more if they saved the "Go Go Power Rangers" remix for this season, instead of doing it right away when Saban made Samurai

https://youtu.be/zE9kWohn6IE

Samurai theme: Nice touch of nostalgia. The second Saban brought back PR from Disney, he went back to MMPR basics. Unfortunately this method of storytelling is the reason why we only got one good season during the Neo-Saban era.

https://youtu.be/cczXYV0VCDA

Zeo Theme: WOW this has my hyped

https://youtu.be/PIYFboJ5XIQ

SPD Demo theme: It is slightly different from the one Disney used, but I still like it

https://youtu.be/du0-hMozgM4

SPD: Disney really made use of Ron Wasserman

https://youtu.be/nSrX-HDdync

Mystic Force: This song is so epic, even the instrumental

https://youtu.be/-JdIsvD-C0Q

RPM Demo theme 5: Would have been nice if Disney used this theme. RPM was supposed to be the final season, and having a Go Go Power Rangers remix for the final season would have been a nice touch

https://youtu.be/1kPH2lXmhUo

RPM Theme: Although people might not like that Disney picked this over the other songs, personally this gets me hyped for the best season of Power Rangers

https://youtu.be/6jOunzJd54M

Ninja Steel: Nice use of the Japanese instruments, and I like the fast paced music

https://youtu.be/uycBL4wOUeg

RPM Demo Theme 1: I like the apocalyptic feeling at the beginning, really sets the tone

https://youtu.be/oTrD-n1KVA0

In Space: This melody is just amazing

https://youtu.be/JtHdFyqQi6A

Time Force: Sci-Fi and guitar rifts are epic

https://youtu.be/OBNuPyjUU3o

Dino Charge: I enjoy the tribal theme, and it would have been great if the WRITERS FOR THE LION GUARD DID SOMETHING LIKE THIS FOR THE INTRO GOD DAMNIT!

https://youtu.be/eH9WmaK7iLs

Thanks for reading even though no one gives a shit. Chances are that no one is reading this in general. Bye

Why I Love Power Rangers (Reviewing Every Season)

Almost two years ago, out of pure boredom, I revisited the Power Rangers franchise. At first ti started off from watching the Opening compilations, but then it became a whole other thing.

While I did grow up watching the show, watching some older seasons, and religously watching Samurai when it aired at the time. Though I quit during Megaforce, ever since then I stayed away from the franchise.

But now, my interest was re-kindled, despite the campy asthetics, I was still drawn to it. Something about it was just appealing to me. Maybe it was The Lion Guard that de-sensitized me to some of the more goofy elements of the show, or maybe I just found the goofy parts enjoyable, but eventually, I began to watch full episodes of the show.

I first started with the fan favorite season, RPM. A season I fucking loved. Right after that, I re-visited Time Force, and much like RPM, I enjoyed it. Fast foreward to now, and I have officially seen every season of Power Rangers released up to this point. So now I'm going to review every Season.

Saban Era (Zordon Era):

Season 1-3: Mighty Morphin Power Rangers

https://youtu.be/nHalaFUqnTI

The Season that started it all. While Stan Lee pitched the concept for an adaptation of Super Sentai, in which they would use the fight scenes, but film new footage with American Actors to create a new story and show, unfortunatly it was rejected at the time.

Haim Saban would later on revisit this concept and sign a deal with Toei, the creators of Super Sentai, to let them adapt Kyoryu Sentai Zyuranger, into Mighty Morphin Power Rangers.

The show's concept was fairly simple, a Team of teens with attitude would be chosen to fight the evil space witch, Rita Repulsa, and her army of monsters.

Overall, the show has it's charm. While somewhat goofy, and has that 90's kids show asthetic, the show certainly was engaging.

While the characters themselves dont go through major arcs, what made things interesting were the multi-episode plotlines, from the Green With Evil Saga, to the introduction of Lord Zedd, the show utilized these plotlines to keep the viewers engaged.

Decent show, 6/10

Season 3B: Mighty Morphin Alien Rangers

https://youtu.be/5_fRclfi5DE

This season, more than anything, functioned as a bridge between Mighty Morphin Season 3, and Zeo. While also showing off the concept of different rangers to the viewers. Before, Mighty Morphin Season 2-3 Would keep the Zyuranger suits (Except the white Ranger, who was known as "Kiba Ranger" From a different Sentai Season, Dairanger) but would use Zord footage from two different sentai seasons. Season 2 would use the Zords from "Gosei Sentai Dairanger" while Season 3 would use Zord footage from"Ninja Sentai Kakuranger". But overall, no change in the suits, since the original Mighty Morphin suits were so iconic, changing them could possibly not end well.

So this season introduced the Alien Rangers of Aquitar, as somewhat a way to get the audience at the time used to other rangers, in which they used the ranger suits from Kakuranger.

On it's own, the season wasn't that good. But as a second part of season 3, it was alright and got the job done, as it built up the Zeo Crystal, so it could lead into the next season.

5/10

Season 4: Power Rangers Zeo

https://youtu.be/PIYFboJ5XIQ

While Alien Rangers had the benifit of being a team Seperate from the Mighty Morphin team, this season changed the Ranger suits for everyone.

The Mighty Morphin Powers are gone, and the team now uses the power of the Zeo crystal, to become stronger than before. This particular season was based on "Chouriki Sentai Ohranger", which translated well in terms of asthetics to Zeo's concept of being the next step in evolution for the Power Rangers.

Much like Mighty Morphin, this season relied more on engaging plot lines to carry the story, and honestly I had an enjoyable time with the show, we got more character insight. It was a fun show.

6.5/10

Season 5: Power Rangers Turbo

https://youtu.be/_s98KJd95pc

Turbo, ehhhhhhhhhh. While most in the fanbase HATED the show for a number of reasons, the drop in writting quality, replacing the cast without good build up, Justin, I dont HATE the show. But yeah it was a step down from Zeo.

And it didn't help that the Writters didn't know what the hell to do with the Sentai footage from "Gekisou Sentai Carranger" which was A sentai season that was a parody of Super Sentai. One half of the writters wanted to just write a serious story, while the others wanted to just embrace the goofyness of Carranger. And what did we get?

An episode where the rangers are baked into a giant pizza.

Personally, I was more engaged with the show when they changed the cast, probably because I was growing tired with the old one since most of them were arround since Mighty Morphin.

Eh 5/10

Season 6: Power Rangers In space

https://youtu.be/JtHdFyqQi6A

So Turbo didn't do so hot in terms of the ratings, which is easily self-explanitory. As a result, it was decided that "In Space" would be the last season of Power Rangers. As a result, the writters went "Fuck it" and went all out.

And HOLY SHIT IT'S GOOD.

The story is MILES above turbo, the villains were better and more interesting, the new Red Ranger is engaging as a character, and the new cast finally gets a chance to shine. Along with that, the show adopted the "Kid Friendly Soap Opera" format that would be present up until Ninja Storm.

The writting in this show is phenomenal and the best out of this Era. And the Finale, while flawed, was just amazing.

This season served as a finale to the story that started with "Mighty Morphin Power Rangers" and it is AMAZING.

8/10

Saban Era (Post-Zordon Era):

Season 7: Power Rangers Lost Galaxy

https://youtu.be/GtJa9rup4O8

This is the begining of the "Post Zordon Era" of the Saban Era. The seasons before were an interconnected story, while Lost Galaxy was the first to start the anthology format Power Rangers would adopt.

And it does a pretty damn good job. While the plots were varying in terms of engagement (especially the Lights of Orion saga) the characters were fun and most of them had good development.

But my favorite part was the Magna Defender arc. HOLY SHIT HIS THEME SONG IS AMAZING!

Along with that, this season embraced the "Kid Friendly Soap Opera" format, as it ditched the rock music for a more orchestral score. Death is heavily prominent in the show, and scenes that needed emotion, conveyed it.

7/10

Season 8: Power Rangers Lightspeed Rescue

https://youtu.be/rdpnsWMh80U

While the past two seasons were Space Operas, this season finally returns to Earth.

While I do consider it a step down from Lost Galaxy in terms of writting, it's still a good season. Most, if not all of the characters got development and proper characterization. The villains, personally were a bit underwhelming, but it wasn't bad.

And best of all, the Titanium Ranger, the first time where we had a Ranger that does not have a Super Sentai counterpart. And he's amazing.

This season is a fun watch, also the Red Ranger runs up to a Giant Monster with nothing but his Gun.....badass.

6.5/10

Season 9: Power Rangers Time Force

https://youtu.be/OBNuPyjUU3o

This season.....IS SO GOOD

This show has amazing writting, the characters (minus Lucas) have amazing development, the main villans are compelling and complext, the themes of Destiny are well executed and I LOVE IT.

Seriously go watch this season.

9/10

Season 10: Power Rangers Wild Force

https://youtu.be/8Y3Ib0YNFaQ

So during the production of this season, Disney aquired Fox Kids and the rights to alot of their shows....which included Power Rangers.

To say Disney wasn't a fan of the show is an understatement, and as such they wanted to cancel the show, with Wild Force being the last season.

Along with that, this is the 10th anniversary of the show.

And I got to say, it's pretty good. While a step down from time force, the show was mostly well executed. The story between Cole and Master org was well executed. Along with that there were bits of the show that I was suprised Disney allowed.

While it has it's flaws, it's a good show.

7.5/10

Disney Era:

Season 11: Ninja Storm

https://youtu.be/3D_id7KFopc

While Disney wanted to cancel the show, a few people who worked for the company managed to convince them to let it continue on, by moving production to New Zeland, which was cheapter than filming in LA. As such, the show was greenlit for another season.

With a new Era, comes a new take on the show. We went from a Kid friendly drama, to basically a 2000's kids action show fused with the kid friendly drama.

As for the show itself, well it's a fun one that's for sure. While there are bits of wasted potential in terms of crafting a deep and complex story, that's not what the show is. It's meant to be a fun time, in whih where you can just, chill. And I got to say, it works.

The main six rangers are fun to follow, though personally the main villain, Lothor, is just halarious. This season just made me laugh. The humor this season is actually tolerable, and even above average.

Fun show 7/10

Season 12: Power Rangers Dino Thunder

https://youtu.be/y-TJuQOvDQw

After over a decade, we are finally back with Dinosuars, along with that this season would have the 500th episode in the franchise.

To celebrate, the producers would Bring back Jason David Frank, AKA Tommy Oliver, who was the Green and White Mighty Morphin Ranger, The Red Zeo Ranger, and the first Red Turbo Ranger, to act as somewhat of a mentor figure to this team, and be the Black Ranger.

This season would switch back to more interesting stories and character development. And the smaller cast of Ranger certainly helped with that. All of the Rangers were well written and were compelling. Especially the White Ranger arc with Trent.

Along with that, Mesogog is a menacing villain, and it's amazing.

This season managed to be both a Legacy season, along with telling it's own story.

8/10

Season 13: Power Rangers SPD

https://youtu.be/nSrX-HDdync

Skipping to the future in 2025, this season would feature anothe Government operated Ranger team.

This season is good. Each ranger was interesting, with some of them like the Sky getting well written development.

The mentor this season was well handled, with his function as a mentor, and his backstory that drives him to fight as a Ranger himself.

This season is one of the higher points in the franchise. Which makes sense since this is one of the most popular Seasons from the Disney Era.

8/10

Season 14: Power Rangers Mystic Force

https://youtu.be/-JdIsvD-C0Q

From what I heard, this season had mixed, but mosty positive reception from the fanbase.

Personally the weak point in this season was the Red Ranger Nick. He's.....a dick. He does grow on me later on, but early on he was just mostly unlikable. Like he denies Magic existing, EVEN WHEN IT IS BEING SHOWN TO HIM RIGHT IN FRONT OF HIS FACE!

But it's not enough for me to hate this season. I particularly enjoyed it, especially the other Rangers.

However the best part is the Music, OMG I love this season's score. I wish Disney had released the OST because holy shit I love it.

7/10

Season 15: Power Rangers Operation Overdrive

https://youtu.be/KnJgtuHlHpw

The fanbase HATES this season. And I understand why, but personally I dont HATE it.

The characters themselves, are kinda annoying (especially the Blue Ranger Dax). Most of them suffer little to no development this season, and some of them are just unlikable.

This time there are multiple villain factions.....and it's not exected that well.

In fact this season is mostly just wasted poitential. Like they have a shit ton of good ideas, but they dont really execute them well. Which is sad because you can clearly tell that a lot of love and effort went into making this season. The people behind the show cared and wanted to make a good show.

However the final arc with the Red Ranger, is actually pretty good. And I like that it wasn't just resolved in one episode.

Eh season 5.5/10

Season 16: Power Rangers Jungle Fury.

https://youtu.be/IeOpdqesepI

This season for sure is a step up from overdrive.

Much like DIno Thunder, this season properly utilizes the smaller Ranger count, and is able to properly develop the main five.

However the strong point is the conflict between the main villain Dai-Shi, and Jarred, the human he is posessing. Jarred is a rather interesting villain, and over the course of the season we see his past, and whether or not he is worthy of redemption. Which all acumulates into an amazing Finale.

Good show: 7/10

Season 17: Power Rangers RPM

https://youtu.be/6jOunzJd54M

Bruce Kallish, the man who was in charge for most of the Disney Era, had left the show. Disney planned to cancel the show after Jungle Fury (since they really did not like the show), however Jetix Europe had managed to convince them to let them continue the show, along with that the contract with Bandai said they needed to produce one more season.

And then came Eddie Guzelian, who saw alot of potential in the show. You see, at the time DIsney mostly made profit off of marketing to girls, and not so much to boys. Eddie told Disney that they had a chance to get boys interested and profit off of them, and promised to make a mature season that appealed to both kids and adults.

However the main problem was that the Sentai, Engine Sentai Go-onger, was the FARTHEST thing from a mature show, in fact the opposite. The zords in the show had eyes and would talk alot, it was goofy, and awfully rediculous. To quote Eddie, "Holy shit! I just promised Disney I could turn this into a show that would appeal to an OLDER audience! I must be out of my fucking mind! Holy shit!! Wait, what's on the front of that Zord? Are those motherfucking eyeballs?!"

Yeah, however he pushed through and created a season of Power Rangers that was esentally a fusion of the Terminator, and Mad Max. And how did it end up?

It was AWESOME!

This is a season that was neevr seen before in terms of tone. Right off the bat most of humanity was said to be KILLED by the Venjix Virus, and his machine army. Yeah this season is dark, but not grim.

As for the Go-Onger asthetics, while goofy at first, they still somewhat fit into this world, and the suits eventually do become believable as Apocalyptic battle gear.

Each of the characters gets proper development, as we learn more about their past, and see how they grow as people. The main story with Dillon, the black Ranger, was good and engaging. The Red Ranger Scott, while at first coming off as a prick, does grow on you as you see more of his backstory. The Green Ranger Ziggy is a comedic character done right. The Blue Ranger Scott is the most heroic out of the bunch. And the Yellow Ranger Summer functions well in her role to bring out the best in Dillon, as we learn of her journey from a spoiled rich girl, to a hero. As for the Gold and Silver Ranger, Gem and Gemma, while coming off as childish, do get some development in their focus episodes.

Dr. K, the mentor this season, is one of, if not the best mentors in the franchise. Her backstory is compelling, and her character is complex. Seeing her grow from her cold personality at the start of the show was amazing and well written Venjix is a menacing villain, since he acomplished what the villains of the past couldn't, conquer Earth. And he is mostly the focus of some of the more darker scenes in the show.

I LOVE this season.

9.5/10

Neo-Saban Era:

Season 18-19: Power Rangers Samurai

https://youtu.be/cczXYV0VCDA

RPM was meant to be the finale for the franchise, and it certainly felt like it. All the growth the franchise had gone through over the years, all built up to this season, from the cheesy 90's kids show, to a tale about the last stand of humanity, it felt like a proper conclusion, and Disney was going to keep it that way.

But then Saban bought back the show in 2010. The show was going to air on Nickelodean, and was going to adapt "Samurai Sentai Shinkenger", a fan favorite Sentai season, into Power Rangers Samurai.

Jhonothan Tzachor was brought back to write the show, and this whole season was really popular due to the heavy promotion. So how did it do?

IT WAS SHIT!

Yeah apparently Tzachor is a Sentai Fanboy, and thought Shinkenger was a masterpiece. As such the epiosdes are DIRECT translations of the Sentai. Hell the dialouge was most likley just the Japanese script ran through a translator.

Now for the chracters....what characters? Jayden (Red Ranger) is just a robot. His voice has no range and has the same expression in every fucking episode. Kevin (Blue Ranger) is SUCH A KISSASS to Jayden, and always sounds like he's whispering. Mia's (Pink Ranger) ONLY personality trait is that she is shit at cooking, and wants to be a housewife. Mentor Ji, IS ONE OF, IF NOT THE WORST FUCKING MENTORS IN THE ENTIR FRANCHISE. He is incompitent, shows favortism towards jayden, and needs to learn lessons he should have learned a long time ago.

The main villain, master Xandred just sits on his ass and does nothing for most of the episode.

The only good rangers are Entonio (Gold Ranger) and Lauren (Other Red Ranger). Antonio is the ONLY ONE to have proved himself to be worthy, and shows courage and determination. And YET, HIS TEAM DIDN'T WANT HIM TO JOIN AT FIRST, JUST BECAUSE HIS FATHER DIDN'T RAISE HIM TO BE A SOLDIER LIKE EVERYONE ELSE. "He DiDn'T hAvE pRoPeR tRaInInG" HE MASTERED AN IMPOSSIBLE FIGHTING TEQNIQUE YOU ASSHOLES.

And Lauren, she is MILES above Jayden. Her actress actually puts in effort into her performance, her chatracterization is well handled, and is a likeable charscter.....and yet her team treats her like shit because "ShE's NoT jAydEn!" YOU DICKS, THIS GIRL WANTS TO HELP OUT WITH THE MISSION AND MAKE FRIENDS, AND YOU JERKS JUST IGNORE HER AND TREAT HER LIKE TOTAL ASSHATS.

Speaking of which, this season praises Jayden as if he is the second coming of christ. And I hate it. He could have just told his team that he's not the key to stopping Xandred, and they need to anticipate for the true Red Ranger, but NOPE, Lets's make everything harder for Lauren later on.

I hate this season, which sucks because I enjoyed it when I was a kid.

Season 20-21: Power Rangers Megaforce

https://youtu.be/CDNGl46CcQ8

So it's the 20th anniversay of Power Rangers. There were alot of things going for this season, alot of brand awareness, Goksiger esentally being the PERFECT season to adapt, and actors willing to return, so how did it turn out?

Yeah it's shit.

Apparently at the time, they were not allowed to Skip Goseiger, so we got NO anniversary content until the second half. Rumors at the time said they would just use Goseiger's card gimmick as a replacement for Gokaiger's Key gimmick, as a way to fuse the two seasons.....they did not do that.

No instead the gokaiger suits were reserved as a power up. And asthetically it didn't make sense. The Goseiger suits looked like Angelic versions of the Mighty Morphin Suits, so they would be perfect to use for an anniversary season, while the Gokaiger suits were based on Pirates. They did not mix well.

As for the rangers, only like 2 got proper development. The Blue Ranger Noah had two well written focus episodes that dealt with his confidence as a Ranger, and him trying to be better. And Robo knight who went through an arc of accpeting to be part of a team and protect humanity.

Everyone else was SHIT. Gia (Yellow Ranger) had NO FOCUS EPISODES, and was just there. Emma (Pink Ranger) is concerningly too fond of the environment, to the point where she imagines a city being destroyed, and nature replacing it. Jake (Black/green Ranger) is just not funny. Like his whole shtick is that he has a crush on Gia, that's it. Orion (Silver Ranger) is just an off brand version of Tyson (Operation Overdrive Mercury Ranger). And Troy (Red Ranger) is a litteral Robot, more robotic than the acutal Robot on the show. He's meant to be the chosen one, but it's horribly executed. And what's worse is that whenever his actor, Andrew grey, tries to show emotion, the producers tell him to cut it out.

And when they do use Gokaiger footage, sometimes they will go through the effor of editing out Sentai exclusive Rangers.....AND THEN LATER THEY FILM NEW FOOTAGE WITH THE SENTAI RANGERS. And what's worse is that they did nothing with them story-wise. Use this as a chance to expand the lore and tell new stories we wouldn't be able to get normally, but NOPE!

This season is utter garbage, both Megaforce and Samurai. Both shows are the embodiment of what people hate about Power Rangers. The garbage is shit, the acting is bad, and the story is just poorly written.

I hate it, 2/10

Season 22-23: Power Rangers Dino Charge

https://youtu.be/eH9WmaK7iLs

For one reason or another, Jhonothan Tzachor left the show, and instead Judd "Chip" Lynn took his place. In case you didn't know, he was a writter from Turbo-Time Force, and wrote the second half of RPM, and POSSIBLY Jungle Fury. But if I had to guess, the poor reception of Samurai and Megaforce probably the reason for him fired.

As for Dino Charge itself? I enjoyed it. While the second half was a step down, overall it showed what the Neo Saban Era could be. The main six rangers had decent arcs, and the Red Ranger actually has emotion.

The writting was a step up from the past two seasons, and was less lazy in terms of the story execution.

It's a good season.

Movie: Power Rangers 2017

https://youtu.be/jgk96izcJbw

Around when Dino Charge was airing, it was revealed that Saban and Lionsgate were developing a Power Rangers movie. While the film had mixed reception, I personally liked it.

Toneally it felt like it picked up where RPM left off, that being more serious, but not edgy. The main five rangers had a decent arc, with them (Minus Billy, the Blue Ranger) going on a Journey to become worthy enough to be Rangers. People complained that they couldn't morph right away, but I understand why.

Here's the thing, teenagers are dicks. Cuz y'know the hormones and what not. So getting five of them, and forcing them to hang out wouldn't be a good idea. As such they needed to grow and not only become friends, but also selfless enough to want to save the world.

I do agree that the action is underwhelming, since it mostly comes in at the end. But I can forgive that since this movie needs to develop five main characters, and doesn't have the luxury of establishing them firsthand like the MCU does. As for the fight scenes themselves, well they feel something generic from an MCU movie NGL. They should have added more flare and color to make it resemble it's Tokusatsu roots.

As a Superhero Film: 5/10

As a Teen Drama: 7/10

Season 24-25: Power Rangers Ninja Steel

https://youtu.be/6rJ3E4NmQik

Things seem to be looking up for the franchise, DIno Charge was good, as Judd Lynn clearly was able to do his Job, and with the 25th anniversary coming up, things were looking good.

Unfortunatly Saban got involved with this season's writting.

As such this show, was not good. The main rangers well.....got jack shit. Their development was non existent, and the two comedic relief chartacters, Victor and Monty, were just awful. They were unecessary and it was obvious they were trying to replace Bulk and Skill (the comedic Duo from Mighty Morphin-In Space), especially since they were responsible for most of the fart jokes this season.

This is why I hate the Neo Saban Era (Aside from Dino Charge and the Movie), it's just nothing but trying to replicate what Mighty Morphin had done. The show went through an evolution over the years, The Zordon Era being a 90's kids show with heart, the Post Zordon Era being a Kid friendly Drama, and the Disney Era fusing the Drama aspects with elements of being a 2000's action kids show, while also evolving different areas of the franchise, from the music, to writting, to cinemetography, the show evolved.

But when Saban bought back the show, we went right back to where we started. The show refused to evolve, instead opting to pander to the current generation of 7 year olds, without growing up themselves.

Yeah I hate this era.

4/10

Hasbro Era:

Season 26-27: Power Rangers Beast Morphers

https://youtu.be/GwqDBqhbF5Q

So with the poor finacial reception of the 2017 movie, and Ninja Steel, Saban put Power Rangers up for sale, and as such Hasbro Bought the Brand. And for this season, they opted to adapt

"Tokumei Sentai Go-Busters", a Sentai season that was skipped because Nick has a dumbass 20 episode per season policy, which is why each season was split into two seasons, causing some Sentai seasons to be skipped. But this was the first time where we went back and adapted a skipped Sentai season.

As for Beast Morphers, well it does heavily resemble the Neo Saban Era, but like Dino Charge, they are trying this time. The main rangers have at the very least, proper characterization. And the silver Ranger, Steel, is just a joy to watch.

While it has a few problems, it is a step up from Ninja Steel.

6/10

Season 28: Power Rangers Dino Fury Season 1

https://youtu.be/V2KU2NUPetc

We are back with Dinosuars.

Honestly, this season shows that the show is evolving. The music has canged, and the show is heavily ambitious with it's storytelling.

However my main problem is that the show suffers because of the Episodic format Saban has enforced (Fuck you Saban, why are you still here). But it's somewhat of an enjoyable watch.

I will update this once the second season wraps up later this year on Netflix. But as of now it's a 6.5/10

But what was the point of this? Well the point is to show off the highs, and lows of this franchise, and what I think of it. What I see in this show, is something special, while campy and low budget, this show, at it's best, is engaginc, complex, and fun. Where we have good, but flawed characters.

This show is something different that you can't find with MARVEL or DC shows, because this show is different from them, it's Power Rangers.

And I love it.
